

A World-Class Invitation to personal excellence
The Gold Medallion Foundation
7th Annual S.O.E. Academy --“Keepin’ It Pure”

A focus on abstinence education—making safe & healthy choices

Learn to lead with confidence -- prepare for a rewarding future!

Six Sessions: Teenshops begin April 4th thru May 9, 2009--10 am to 12:30 pm each Saturday

Location: The OSU African American Extension Center – Mt. Vernon Avenue (1 block from the King Ctr)

Registration Deadline: Friday, March 28

Males & Females ages 13-17 will learn:

- Valuable keys to make a positive impression every time
- Building positive Male/Female Relationships –Can a guy/girl really learn to respect one another without “issues?”
- Tutorial Dine-out Experience--Informal & Formal Dining Etiquette
- Job Readiness—Financial Literacy—How to have cash and a stash when it really matters
- Personal Hygiene & Appearance—The Bare Basics—What’s cool and what’s Not
- “Street Smarts” – Assertive Conflict Resolution
- Weekly Social Dance Instruction: Salsa, Cha Cha & Line Dance
- Graduation—Semi-formal Dinner/Dance Friday May 15

The Gold Medallion Foundation is a Faith-based community organization committed to building strong moral character

Male & female instructors provide healthy mentorship opportunities via character-based educational models

Space is Limited—Registration donation--$79 when submitted by March 28 – After March 28--$99

Register by PayPal on-line at www.thegoldmedallionfoundation.org.

Or Contact: Mrs. Brenda Johnson -- 614-306-7751 -- schoolofesther@juno.com